Shed: The hub of activity is the fully lockable, 80ft x 60ft steel frame shed with concrete floor. It also has a toilet with septic tank, power and lights.

Cultivation: The owners have spelled the 40 acres over the six years. Previously it has successfully grown zucchini and eggplant. It would make a perfect area for growing cash crops such as lucerne and other crops. The front boundary faces the Bruce Highway (Highway No1) so the potential is great for on-farm sales.

Orchards:

1. Approx 2,750 Kensington Pride mango trees & approx 500 x R2E2 mango trees all under trickle irrigation. In 2022 the orchards produced 118 tonne of juicing mangoes.

Infrastructure, machinery, water licence, orchard and cultivation opportunities – all for $699,000. There's value here. This is a great opportunity to either expand on what you already have or start with a quality fertile block and great water access for irrigation. There's the "gold"!
