block with the front patio set to take in the panoramic views of the Berserkers. This home has plenty to please this discerning eye. With three comfy bedrooms, the master bedroom has air-conditioning, a terrific walk-in robe and an ensuite. The interior design features a spacious lounge and formal dining room as well as a tiled family room which accommodates an everyday dining and tv viewing area. The awesome fresh kitchen is complete with induction hot plates, pantry, wall oven, microwave, double bowl sinks, an appliance hideaway and much more. The kitchen overlooks the rear entertainment and BBQ area which is accessed through a sliding glass door from the family room. Across from the rear under-roof patio is a small greenhouse and workshop/storage shed. There is no mowing to be done in the backyard. There is a single internal roller door garage. Much attention has been paid to security in the build of this home. Well worth the inspection for those not wanting to spend too much time in the car going from point A to B.
