precinct, offering developers and investors a level of scale, flexibility and future optionality seldom available in regional Queensland town centres.

INVESTMENT & DEVELOPMENT RATIONALE

The portfolio provides a compelling combination of:

- Immediate income from a diversified mix of retail, warehouse, commercial and residential assets
- Flexible zoning (Commercial and DCZ), supporting a wide range of redevelopment and intensification outcomes
- Prime town-centre positioning, ideally suited to a future master-planned retail, commercial or mixed-use precinct
- Staged development or disposal potential, including the ability to sell titles individually over time

The asset may be acquired and operated in its current configuration, enhanced through selective refurbishment and re-leasing, or re-positioned entirely through comprehensive redevelopment.

DEVELOPMENT OPTIONALITY

- Expansion and modernisation of existing retail and commercial tenancies
- Re-purposing of warehouse assets (e.g. self-storage, large-format retail or logistics support)
- Construction of new commercial buildings and/or higher-density residential product along Russell Street
- Full demolition and redevelopment into a purpose-designed town-centre enterprise
- Strategic land-banking within a proven and growing regional hub

Subject to approvals, the site lends itself to multiple future pathways, including: The inclusion of an operating hardware business, should the purchaser elect to continue it, further enhances the portfolio's income and operational flexibility.

STRATEGIC CONTEXT

Gracemere continues to experience strong population growth, supported by Rockhampton's expanding industrial, logistics and services economy. Demand for modern retail, commercial services and residential accommodation remains robust, underpinning the long-term fundamentals of well-located town-centre landholdings.

Large, consolidated sites of this nature — particularly those offering both income and redevelopment scale — are increasingly scarce.

CONCLUSION

This portfolio represents a highly strategic acquisition opportunity for developers, investors and land-bankers seeking:

- Scale
- Town-centre positioning
- Income security
- Long-term redevelopment potential

Offered as one complete portfolio ONLY, this is an opportunity to shape the future commercial heart of Gracemere.
