and is fenced on three sides. Water is also available from nearby Neerkol Creek, adding another valuable element to this lifestyle property.

And there's already inspiration for what you could build. Architectural plans are available for a liveable shed-style home, giving the new owner a head start in turning this block into something special. Perfect position for a relocatable home. There are many options with this block.

One of the property's inclusions is a fabulous 40-foot ex-refrigeration container (refrigeration not working) already on site. Solid, insulated and seriously cool, it could make excellent secure storage, a workshop space or become part of your plans for the property.

Power currently runs to the neighbouring property, providing an indication of nearby infrastructure, but this could also be the perfect opportunity to embrace solar and create a more self-sufficient country lifestyle.

For families, Stanwell State School is only around a few minutes' drive away, offering the convenience of a local, country, primary school without the daily trip into town.

And you're certainly not isolated. Stanwell is approximately 15km from Gracemere and 25–26km from Rockhampton, putting major shopping, employment and services within an easy drive.

ABOUT STANWELL

Stanwell is a small, friendly rural township offering genuine country living while remaining within easy reach of the major services and employment centres of Gracemere and Rockhampton. Set along the Capricorn Highway with Neerkol Creek winding through the district, the area retains a relaxed Central Queensland country character and a strong sense of community. Families are well catered for with the long-established Stanwell State School, offering Prep to Year 6 education, while the local Stanwell Hall, sporting grounds and tennis court provide a focus for community activities and social events.

With the expanding Gracemere industrial and logistics precinct positioned between Stanwell and Gracemere, plus Rockhampton approximately 26km away, Stanwell offers an appealing combination of space, country lifestyle and accessibility to employment and city services.
